REPORT ON SPECIAL LECTURE DATED 23RD MAY 2025

The Golden Jubilee Special Lecture Series arranged at R L Law College, Davanagere, scheduled on May 23, 2025, Lecture delivered by Dr. Sathish Gowda N on the topic "Role of Governors in federal democracy". This event coincided with the college's 50th anniversary celebrations, marking a significant milestone in its history. This program was presided by college Principal Dr. G S Yateesh, anchored by Smt. Tasfia Farheen, Welcomed by Smt. Dr Pankaja T C, guest introduction was made by Sri. Pradeep K N, and vote of thanks rendered by Sri. Vidyadhara vedha Varma T, more than 160 students were present in the program.

Key Discussion Points

- Role of Governors: Dr. Gowda will likely discuss the constitutional role of Governors in India's federal structure, including their powers and responsibilities in state governance.
- Federalism in India: The lecture may touch upon the principles of federalism, highlighting the division of powers between the Union and states, as outlined in the Indian Constitution.
- Governance and Democracy: The discussion might emphasize the importance of constitutional values in maintaining social and economic balance in India, ensuring inclusive growth and development.

Expected Outcomes

- Enhanced Understanding: Students and attendees will gain a deeper understanding of the Governor's role in India's federal democracy.
- Critical Thinking: The lecture will likely encourage critical thinking about the complexities of federal governance and the importance of constitutional values.
- Networking Opportunities: The event provides a platform for students, faculty, and experts to engage in meaningful discussions and build connections.

This special lecture series is a valuable opportunity for students and professionals to explore the intricacies of federal democracy and the role of Governors in India's governance structure.
