“By Education I mean on all round drawing out the best in the child-body, mind and spirit. Literacy is not the end of education nor even the beginning. It is one of the means whereby men and women can be educated. Literacy in itself is no education.”

- Mahatma Gandhi

From last 50 years, I have been mingling with people mostly from rural areas, who are poor and uneducated. Even though they are uneducated, most of them have dreams about getting good education to their children. There were very few legal institutions before 1968 in this central part of Karnataka and it was very difficult for the villagers to go to faraway places for getting legal education. My vision was to provide a quality legal education to the needy people so that students from remote villages can become world class law professionals and help in building our great nation. Keeping this in view, R L Law College, Davangere was established in the year 1968 under the banner of Bapuji Educational Association. Care was also taken to add rare legal disciplines to this institution so that the possible research can be undertaken in these areas to suit the needs. The institute is lodged in a building in an area of acres and is well furnished with all the necessary infrastructure creating a conducive atmosphere for imparting world class education. Over the years, with the support of large number of parents and the hard working faculty the institute has grown to be one of the best in this part of Karnataka.

“Culture and behavior are important than felicitation and money”- Jagajyothi Sri Basavanna. The seer believed in educating everyone and reforming the society. We strongly believe in these words and try hard to impart a good culture and behavior to the students along with providing a quality education.

My dear aspirants of legal education, I wholeheartedly welcome you all to this great R L Law Family for grooming you for your bright future.

Sri. S.S. Mallikarjuna
Joint Secretary, B.E.A.

DEducation is indispensable for the development of a person, society or country. Legal education plays a vital role in creating manpower that is well versed in the laws of our land, legal norms of the world as well. Since there was no law college in the district and as there was a need to set legal education, Bapuji Educational Institution established R L Law College in Davangere in the year 1968. This institution offers both five years (after PUC) and three years (After any degree) undergraduate programme in law. These courses at this institution provide the students a strong background in fundamentals of law and develop ability in them to apply the knowledge acquired, to real life problems. They become competent to analyze the situations people face and find appropriate solutions to them. The students are nurtured by exposing them to practical sessions, internships, skill development programmes and special lectures. Quality education is offered through skilled, experienced and dedicated faculties having academic expertise and legal experiences.

I firmly believe that this institution will keep on flourishing in its chosen field in pace with time.

Dr. R L Umashankar
Chairman, Governing Body
R L Law College

From the Principal's Desk

Long ago education merely meant for transfer of knowledge from the teacher to the taught. Today, education is much more than that after all, if it is just knowledge that you are after, there is enough of it and more on the World Wide Web. It has been estimated that the entire body of knowledge is doubling about every three years. To keep pace with this explosive growth the excellence in education is need of the hour.

The main object of legal education is to produce competent Lawyers whose aim is to defend Fundamental Rights of an individual and welfare of the society. A competence both physical and intellectual as required to be a member of orderly and civilized society. Legal knowledge is a composite expression of information, skill and ethical values. Aim of all these three is betterment of society. In order to acquire these one has to learn inside and outside the classroom participation. R.L. Law College is imparting legal education to provide professional training in Law, promote legal literacy, to strengthen the democratic traditions and uphold Constitutional and human values.

Join us to preserve, promote and develop further this institution to meet the hopes and aspirations of the coming generations.

I welcome prospective Lawyers and students to be a part of the larger family of R.L. Law College Davangere.
